ORGANIZE STAGE Course 3 – The Law of Giving

PART 1

The Law of Giving _____

Everything in the universe operates through _____
_____.

The _____ is the harmonious interaction of all the elements and forces that structure the field of existence.

Because your body and your mind and the universe are in a constant state of _____, stopping the circulation of energy is like stopping the flow of blood.

That is why you must give and receive in order to keep wealth and affluence.

Affluence comes the root word “_____” which mean “to flow to.” The word affluence means to flow in abundance.

Money is a symbol of the _____ we exchange and the life energy we use as a result of the service we provide to the universe.

Another work for money is “currency” which also reflects the flowing nature of energy. The word currency comes from the Latin word “_____” which means “to run” or to flow.

The source of all wealth is _____.

When you seek to fulfill you potential, you are activating the law of giving and receiving.

PART 2

A Metaphor for the Law of Giving and Receiving

Most people know that it feels good to give. But what's behind it and is there a good way to explain it? Yes, and the best way if for you show off your drawing skills.

Space to Draw:

PART 3

Other Things You Can Give Besides Money

Did you know that even if your bank account is at zero, that there is so much that you and I as humans can give? So many people delay happiness in their life because they are waiting for something magical to drop into their laps so that they are, in their minds, ready to give.

But don't hold back. There is a law in action in our universe that defines that as you sow, so shall you reap. Today is your today, and there is so much that you can give.

Put the wallet down for a second and consider your other currencies - your emotion, your time, your heart, and your compassion. Here are just a few to start you off.

1. Give a _____.

Give it to every single person that you meet, and you will receive _____ in return.

2. Give Out _____

Giving this to others means that you want the best for them which in turn means the same or greater for you.

3. Give a _____

Give a _____ to others and your kindness will be returned with kindness. Mankind was created to be kind.

4. Give _____

Give _____ and your life will be appreciated (be added to in value), and in turn you will be greatly appreciated.

6. Give _____

Give _____ and you will be imbued with fresh courage to face each day, and be prepared to attract encouragement to you.

7. Give _____

Give _____ where _____ is due, for this is the honorable thing to do, and be prepared for fresh applause.

8. Give _____

Give _____ and you will be unable to avoid the happy feeling that accompanies it and brings happiness to you as well.

9. Give of Your _____

Give of your time to a greater cause than yourself, and it will cause you to be rewarded in ways that you can only start to imagine.

10. Give of your _____

Whether or not you've practiced over the years is irrelevant.

11. Give _____

Give prayer for your friends and for those who may be perceived as enemies. There is so much anger in the air in our world, and these prayers will go a long way to bringing the miraculous into play amidst the madness.

Make a list of other gifts you can give so that you can activate abundance in your life:

PART 4

Money Jars

Use the Jars System:

LIVING JAR – Monthly living expenses.

Your Living Jar money is the money that you live on each month. This money pays your rent or mortgage, utilities, clothes, food, etc. Your credit card payments are also paid with the Living Jar money. It also pays for a few wants that you wish to make part of your daily life IF your income is enough and the expenses work into your budget.

FREEDOM JAR – Pay yourself first.

The money in this jar isn't 'spent' per se, it's invested into what we call, The Three Pillars of Wealth™: real estate, businesses and the stock market. These are also called assets and are critical to creating financial freedom because the goal is to invest this money into assets that will eventually pay you enough Passive Income to live on when you aren't working.

SAVINGS JAR – Part A and Part B

Part A is for saving up for things you want, like a car or a bike or new phone.

Part B is your Just in Case fund...just in case you get a flat tire, just in case the dryer finally gives up the ghost, just in case Johnny bats a home run through the neighbor’s beautiful front window or your spouse decides to do something nice for you and mistakenly washes your phone.

EDUCATION JAR – Invest in Knowledge

This is where your new Money Jar system gets interesting. How many times have you, or someone you know, said, I’d love to take that _____ (class, seminar, workshop) but I can’t afford to right now?

PLAY JAR – Feeling Abundant

This jar helps the subconscious develop an abundant belief in regard to money because there’s always money there to enjoy when you have your Play Jar. For some people, they play too much; for others they never play. The Play Jar puts some structure in the money you play with.

DONATION JAR – Feel Worthy

when you regularly donate your time, energy and money to help others, it means that you have a belief that there is plenty of whatever it is you need and want to live your life exactly the way you wish. As long as I’ve been helping others learn, the one consistent thread that makes human beings feel alive and worthy, is helping others. With your Donation Jar, you have the opportunity each month to help others and feel great about yourself.

HOW TO DIVIDE YOUR INCOME

LIVING	FREEDOM	SAVINGS	EDUCATION	PLAY	DONATION
55%	10%	10%	10%	10%	10%
	12 – 15% for Women	until 6 months of living expenses have been saved. Then move 10% to Freedom Account.		Must be spent monthly	Must be spent monthly
